

Acknowledgements

We would like to acknowledge the individuals and institutions that have provided data for this collection:

- Mayo Clinic, Rochester, MN, with special thanks to David DeLone, MD, Jeff Fidler, MD, and David Levin, MD, from the Department of Radiology, who reviewed all Siemens cases and provided annotated data of identified pathology.
- Mayo Clinic Arizona, Scottsdale, AZ, with special thanks to Amy Hara, MD, from the Department of Radiology, who with her colleagues reviewed all GE cases and provided annotated data of identified pathology.

We also acknowledge the following individuals who assisted in converting their company's proprietary data format into DICOM-CT-PD:

- Karl Stierstorfer, PhD, and Thomas Flohr, PhD, from Siemens Healthcare, Forchheim, Germany.
- Jiang Hsieh, PhD, from GE Healthcare, Waukesha, WI.

This work would not have been possible without the support and assistance of many additional individuals.

From the NIBIB, these include:

- Roderic Pettigrew, M.D., Ph.D., for his vision for and support of the sub-mSv CT U01 program.
- William Heetderks, M.D., Ph.D.; Krishna Kandarpa, M.D., Ph.D.; and Jill Heemsker, Ph.D. for their ongoing support of and interest in this initiative
- The dedicated and helpful program officers for this award: Hector Lopez, Ph.D., Anthony Sastre, Ph.D., and Behrouz Shabestari, Ph.D.

We have greatly valued the insightful comments and helpful suggestions from our external advisory committee and consultants from Mayo Clinic's sub-mSv CT U01 award from the National Institute of Biomedical Imaging and Bioengineering (NIBIB) (EB 017185), the other NIBIB sub-mSv CT U01 recipients, and additional consultants, including:

- Norbert Pelc, Sc.D. (Stanford University)
- Mark Baker, M.D. (Cleveland Clinic)
- Kyle Meyers, Ph.D. (U.S. Food and Drug Administration)
- Matthew Kupinski, Ph.D. (University of Arizona)
- Alicia Toledano, Ph.D. (Biostatistics Consulting, LLC)
- Peter Edic, Ph.D. (General Electric Global Research)
- Ge Wang, Ph.D. (Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute)
- Hengyong Yu, Ph.D. (University of Massachusetts Lowell)
- Daniel Sodickson, M.D., Ph.D. (New York University Langone Health)
- Aaron Sodickson, M.D., Ph.D. (Brigham and Women's Hospital)
- Ricardo Otazo, M.D. (Memorial Sloan Kettering)
- J. Webster Stayman, Ph.D. (Johns Hopkins University)
